Cheese of the Month

Copper Kettle Parmesan Wheel #18750 1/20 lb. avg.

While Parmigiano Reggiano is known as the king of cheeses, this Italian inspired creation is the U.S. answer to the royal creation. Cello Copper Kettle Parmesan starts with fresh milk heated in a traditional copper kettle and ages for 16 months to develop the complex fruity and nutty notes reminiscent of cooked caramel.

The caramel finish of our Copper Kettle wraps this cheese in a sweetness begging to be enhanced, but not overpowered. That's why food pairings like honey and figs complement Copper Kettle without competing against it. Dark chocolate adds a bite that's sure to bring out the savory elements, while candied almonds give you that salted caramel blend cheese dreams are made of. You can even sprinkle some Copper Kettle on your salad to brighten up those crisp greens. Chardonnay's moderate acidity and fruity notes let the flavors of Copper Kettle shine, while the richness of a malty Porter beer highlights the cheese's nutty, caramel finish.

Parmesan Mac & Cheese

Ingredients:

2 tbsp butter
1 tbsp oil
3 tbsp flour
2 cups of milk
1 cup of cheese
1/3 cup of Parmesan cheese
1 pound of pasta noodles
salt and pepper to taste

Directions:

Place a pot of salted water on to boil for pasta. When water comes to boil add in pasta until just al dente. Drain pasta from water and set aside. To make the roux: Equal parts butter and/or oil and flour to make a roux. Let the roux cook for 1-2 min to cook out raw flour taste. Slowly whisk in milk to avoid any lumps. Once you have the mixture to desired thickness add in cheese. Gently fold in pasta to the sauce and place in oven safe dish. Cook at 400 degrees until golden on top and bubbly. Enjoy!

Spinach Washed & Clipped

Item# 756 4/2.5 lb.

Spinach Salad with Chicken, Apple, Walnuts, and Bacon

Ingredients:

- 3/4 cup walnuts, chopped
- 1/4 pound sliced bacon
- 2 tablespoons red-wine vinegar
- 1 teaspoon Dijon mustard
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon fresh-ground black pepper
- 1/3 cup cooking oil
- 2/3 pound sliced boneless chicken breast
- 1 pound spinach, stems removed, leaves washed (about 9 cups)
- 1 small red onion, chopped fine
- 1 tart apple, such as Granny Smith, peeled, cored, and cut into 1/2-inch pieces

Directions:

Heat the oven to 350°. Toast the walnuts until golden brown, about 8 minutes. Let cool.

In a large frying pan, cook the bacon until it is crisp. Drain the bacon on paper towels and then crumble it.

In a small glass or stainless-steel bowl, whisk the vinegar with the mustard, salt, and pepper. Whisk in the oil.

In a large bowl, combine 2 tablespoons of the dressing with the chicken. Let sit for about 5 minutes so that the chicken absorbs the dressing. Add the walnuts, bacon, spinach, onion, apple, and the remaining dressing and toss.
